COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1907.

NUMBER 14

DIED IN TEXAS.

Mrs. E. L. Dohoney, Wife of Col. Dohoney, a Former Citizen of Adair County.

"Blessed be God," for He created Death. The mourners said, "And Death is rest and peace." Then added, in the certainty of faith, "And given life that nevermore shall cease."

Early Friday morning a tender message came calling Mrs. E. L. Dohoney home to her father. After months of suffering borne with such gentle patience as comes only to those who walk with God, the summons found her ready and willing to move upward and onward with fuller knowledge and greater happiness.

Mrs. Dohoney was a member of one of the best of our old Southern families and was for years identified with the most refined and cultured social life of Paris. Her rare musical gifts, as her goodness of heart won youth many friends who remained to the day of her death. Quiet and unobtrusive, she bore her self with gentle dignity which belonged to the ladies of the old South; essence of home maker she was yet possessed of a strong spirit of helpfulness that went to all who needed her sympathy. Her unspoken creed of usefulness will be well written in these lines. I shall go through this life as if I shall go through this life. Any good thing therefore, I can do or any kindness that I can do me it now; let me not neglect it, for I shall not see it again."

Her wisdom, the strength of her strong and pure character, reflected in lives of the many, her sons and true-hearted daughters that rise up to bless her memory. The loyal wife, the tender mother, the affectionate sister, the faithful friend has passed into the beyond. Those who grieve for the vanished voice and the vanished face saddened by their own loss but rejoice that her spirit has found an abode in the bosom of the Infinite. Take her, O great Eternity, your little life is but a guest, and send the branches of thy tree and trail its blossoms in the dust." Paris Texas Daily Advocate.

THE HAND OF DEATH

Falls Heavily at Cane Valley--Three Within a Few Days.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY BEARD.

Mrs. Mary J. Beard, of the Cane Valley country, died last Sunday of pneumonia. The deceased was a wife of Mr. Jno. Hall Beard, of Cane Valley, and a sister of Mr. James P. Beard, of this city.

Mrs. Beard was about fifty years of age and a lady of the highest type of Christian character. In the neighborhood where she has so long resided her kindness and constant attention to those in distress has won her a warm place in the hearts of all.

The husband, children, brother and relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. S. Dudgeon, after which the remains were interred in the Cane Valley cemetery.

MRS. SOLOMON McFARLAND DEAD.

After a lingering illness of many weeks, Mrs. Solomon McFarland, of the Cane Valley neighborhood, died last Saturday evening, a victim of stomach trouble.

The deceased was a Miss Jones, of the above neighborhood, was about thirty-five years of age, and a lady of many lovable characteristics; a devoted and loving wife, a kind neighbor, and a friend to all.

To the sorrowing husband and relatives the sympathy of all is tendered. The funeral services were conducted at the Cane Valley Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, by Rev. W. S. Dudgeon, followed by the interment in the Cane Valley cemetery.

MRS. T. C. DUDGEON DEAD.

Mrs. T. C. Dudgeon, wife of Mr. T. C. Dudgeon, of Cane Valley, died at her late residence in Cane Valley last Thursday evening about 8:30 o'clock, a victim of a complication of diseases which developed into paralysis, causing death. The deceased was 77 years of age, a good Christian lady and loved by all who knew her.

Besides the husband she is survived by three sons and two daughters, who have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

Squire Charles Rowe, of Sparksburg, was in town Saturday, and is an earnest and enthusiastic advocate of building substantial roads. Mr. Rowe does not and will not favor any plan of road building that fails to make permanent roads. He is outspoken for a rock crusher and a tax sufficient to keep it open. Squire Rowe is a man of good judgment, firm in conviction and game enough to stand for what he believes to be for the best interest of the people. We heartily endorse his position on making roads and trust that his associates will see as he sees and do as he does in this matter.

While our roads are bad, and in many places almost impassable, we hear a great deal about making pikes but when the summer sunbake dries the mud then we all go merrily on and fail to carry out our good resolutions. The fact is that the Commercial Club ought to start an investigation and find the most successful way of building roads and present it to the Fiscal Court in April. It is not what we think or want that change conditions but what we do. It is time for all to pull together and do something. Stand by the court in every effort to better the roads.

Mr. W. R. Myers announces that he is compelled to shut down the electric light plant for a short time, until he can secure fuel. He is firing with wood and at present has exhausted his supply with no hope of replenishing until the roads are passable. He regrets to take this step but there is no alternative at present. This ought to impress our people of the importance and worth of making good solid roads. The buyer can't buy and the seller can't sell in winter time.

The Lebanon papers contained items last week about Deputy Sheriff F. H. Winfrey landing several prisoners in the jail at that point. Sheriff Patteson informs us that no prisoners were taken to the Lebanon jail and that Mr. Winfrey was only employed as a deputy through Circuit Court.

The City of Columbia is in darkness on account of a shortage in the fuel supply, due to the impassable condition of roads leading into Columbia. A nice story to scatter broadcast over the land. The officials of the Fiscal Court and tax payers should swell with pride.

Mr. John C. Bryant, of the Ozark community, exhibited at this office eight ears of corn in one, which is a curiosity. There is one large ear, and around it seven smaller ones. Each ear has a separate cob, but outside ears are all attached to the larger one.

Some weeks ago we announced that Mark Wilson had purchased a one-third interest in the blacksmith shop of John Parson, but later information shows that the deal fell from the lofty heights of expectancy into the valley of failure. The deal failed to materialize.

Luther Gideon Snead was arrested in Columbia Sunday and lodged with Jailor Tarter, the county to pay his bond for six months. Snead made his escape from the road crew several months since, and consequently has 180 days to serve.

Mr. Lewis Cabell, of Green county, was in Columbia Saturday, and stated that the people of Greensburg and Green county are in earnest on the Greensburg and Columbia pike question.

One of the most active county committees is that of Adair which is headed by Prof. W. K. Axbill, of Columbia. —Kentucky-Jamestown Notes.

PIKE TO BURKESVILLE.

Another Pike Proposition--From Columbia, by Breeding to Burkessville.

A pike from Burkessville to Columbia is the slogan that is being sounded by every enterprising citizen in the county. Several pikes have been proposed, but not one that would benefit Burkessville and Cumberland county in general as this one would. Adair county proposes to build the pike from Columbia to our county line near Breeding, providing Cumberland county will build from Burkessville to that point. Columbia desires a good road outlet to the river: Burkessville is equally desirous of a good road outlet to the railroad. Could any thing serve the interests of all parties as much as the proposed pike? Could we hope for an opportunity to get the long desired outlet to the railroad at as small an outlay as this offers? We now have three miles of pike that with a small expense could be made first-class, and the gravel for the remaining eleven miles is in easy reach of the proposed route. At no place would it need to be hauled further than one hundred yards; the road is comparatively level, until Big Renox hill is reached, and the material for the road over that can be secured on the hill. A pike to Glasgow is out of the question. The expense of building a good road over the many hills and along Marrowbone creek would be greater than this county could afford at this time. We can afford the pike to Columbia, and the question is now up to the people. Do you want it? The proposition has been taken up by the Commercial Club of this place. A committee has been appointed to confer with a committee from the Commercial Club of Columbia, and as soon as the weather will permit, the committee from this place will go to Columbia, at which time some definite plan will be adopted for raising the necessary funds for the completion of the road.

Things it over! Talk it over! It would mean; Several hours nearer the railroad, and the outside world. Competition for freight rates. Goods cheaper for Burkessville. Less expense to move our products during the "No water" season.

A trip to the railroad would be a pleasure instead of torture.—Cumberland County News.

LISLE—TAYLOR.

Miss Adaline Dorothy Lisle and Mr. Ernest William Taylor, of Cleveland, Ohio, were quietly married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lisle, Wednesday afternoon. The ceremony which took place at two o'clock was performed by the Rev. A. S. Moffet, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church, and was witnessed by relatives and only a few of the friends of the young people. The bride's sister, Miss Virginia Lisle, was the only attendant, and little Miss Margaret Murray and Master Donald Edwards were the ribbon bearers. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left on the afternoon train for Cleveland, in which city they will reside. Mrs. Taylor is one of Lebanon's most attractive girls, and her friends wish for her a happy home in the city where she goes to reside. Mr. Taylor is a civil engineer holding a responsible position in Cleveland.—Lebanon Enterprise.

CARLOAD OF BOTTLES.

The Durham Bottling Works Meeting With Phenomenal Success.

The Durham Bottling Works have ordered another carload of bottles. The firm which began manufacturing soft drinks a few years ago on a limited capital and upon a small scale has met with phenomenal success, and their shipments last year more than quadrupled the shipment of any previous year. The company is probably the only one in the State which manufactures soft drinks both winter and summer or throughout the year, and makes shipments into cities where there are other bottling establishments.

The above shows what energy pluck will do. Mr. Durham, who is connected with S. H. Grinstead & Co. in the poultry and commission business in Columbia, is a member of the above firm, but he is a successful and strong believer in bottling soft drinks.

Born to the wife of J. E. Bell on the 6th, a daughter.

A new year letter from Breeding—keep up the good work.

Hillennmyer, the noted nurseryman, of Lexington, says, so far, the fruit is safe.

In the Pellyton letter will be found a good article, the advice of which if followed, would be benefitting.

Metcalf county has a fine thoroughbred stallion—Wake Robin—in charge of Mr. P. P. Mitchell, of Edmonton.

WANTED: Two nice girls for the dining room, apply to Commercial Hotel J. T. & F. H. VAUGHAN, Props. Campbellsville, Ky.

All parties indebted to us are requested to settle at once. We are going to the market and need the money.

I will sell my house and lot adjoining the Fair ground. If you want a good home in Columbia, at a bargain, this is your chance. HENRY HUDSON. 14-2f

POST-OFFICE REMOVED.

The new building erected on the northeast side of the public square, to be used as a post-office, was sufficiently near completion last Friday to warrant Mr. James M. Russell moving the office fixtures. This building is well suited for the purpose for which it is being used, and Postmaster Russell and deputies are as proud of the change as a boy with his first pair of boots.

I will pay 85 cents per bushel for good wheat delivered at the Columbia Roller Mill. W. R. MYERS, 11-4f.

FOR SALE.

I will sell my farm 4 1/2 miles west of Columbia, on Burkessville road. It contains 94 acres, good dwelling, good barn and all necessary out building, well watered and plenty of timber. J. W. MORAN, Columbia Ky. 11-4f.

LAND, STOCK AND CROP

Corn is selling at $2.50 per barrel, and will probably sell higher than that later, as there is so much rotten corn, and very little fodder; hay is scarce, and high; J. G. Kniffey, we are informed, has purchased B. F. Tupman's farm near Edith for $4,900, and will get possession soon; W. S. Sinclair bought of J. W. Ruberts 8 hogs; from Abraham Brown, 8 head; from Walker Abbehe, 8 head; and several head from W. G. and J. C. Ellis, paying 61 cents or more, according to size and quality. Mr. Sinclair also sold to Chelf & Walker, of Raley, 25 hogs at $6.40 per hundred, and to W. S. Rector, 17 head at $5.50 per hundred weight.—Pellyton Cor.

Lora Brockman purchased a farm from R. H. Harmon near Sano, Ky., for the sum of $490; roughness is very scarce in this neighborhood; Mr. Lora Brockman sold two mules for $250 and one combined mare to Mr. Wilmer Brockman for $145; Luther Brockman bought one 2 year old heifer from R. H. Harmon for a good price. Stockman will find several head of one and two year old heifers for sale in this community.—Sano Correspondent.

Shelby Wilson bought an extra fine milch cow from S. C. Walkup for $35; Mr. Albert Mercer, of Milltown, bought 24 hogs from J. A. Diddle last Friday that averaged 125 pounds at 6 cents per pound; W. L. Grady sold J. J. Hunter one Peacock colt last week for $125; Mr. Waggener bought a pair of fine pigs from W. L. Grady for $15; Mr. Grady informs your reporter that these pigs is certainly the best that ever went up the pike.—Gradyville Cor.

Robt. Dohoney recently sold to Bob Mitchell, of Lileton, 1000 locusts posts in the tree, for $50. Robert says he has at least $100 worth of Locust post on his farm near here. Mr. Mitchell wants to enclose his whole farm as soon as he can with a fine fence and locust posts; N. G. Keltner purchased 2 four-year-old mules from D. R. Dowell last week for $260.—Mell Cor.

Mr. Thomas Bennett purchased a farm of Elissa Bennett, for $200; Mr. Harmon White sold five shoats to J. L. Rosenbaum, for $21.25; Mr. James Voils sold a mare to Leonard Lawhorn, for $35; Mr. Lucian Blair bought a yoke of work cattle from Leonard Lawhorn for $70.—Fairplay Cor.

R. L. Smythe sold his one half interest in the farm known as the Butler, place near Columbia to J. H. Young for $6000. He also sold Mr. Young his corn at $2.50 per barrel and bulk indicates that there will be 300 barrels. This purchase gives the buyer one of the best farms in the county.

A. J. Harris bought one fat hog from Jas. Roysse, for $10; J. W. McClister sold one milch cow to Thomas Pulliam for $30; Melvin Petty sold two milch cows to Arthur Curry for $50; J. C. Roysse bought one work mare from Rube Lavender for $102.50.—Dirigo Cor.

Cassius Breeding bought ten hogs from Jo Will Morris at 51 cents, and 40 from H. A. Walker for same money. Mr. Breeding has 60 feeders purchased heretofore, the combined lot making a nice bunch.

Thomas Goadler sold his crop of tobacco for 6 and 7 cents at Hot Cave; Joe Mitchell bought a bunch of hogs from Tom Goadler at 51 cents.—Lileton Correspondent.

Mr. Walter Murrell sold nine hogs to Tandy for $70; Old hens have advanced to 9 cents and eggs are still 17 cents in this writing.—Joppa Cor.

C. C. Kinnard bought of S. L. Kinnard 2 mule colts for $120 and 27 hogs at 6 cents.—Neil Correspondent.

A. R. Fesse purchased of J. E. Rice, Green River Bridge, several barrels of corn for $2.50 per barrel.—Cane Valley Correspondent.

HOW MY MONEY GETS AWAY FROM ME.

I've worked for Joe, I've worked for Rob,
I've worked by the day, I've worked by the job;
I've received the dough and laid it by,
And to save that money I sure did try;
And I'll be dogged if I can see
How my money gets away from me.
I've taught the school, I've kept the store,
They paid me the dough; it made me some more.
I've laid it aside for rainy days,
But the pledged stuff, it just has such ways,
For I'll be dogged if I can see,
How my money gets away from me.
I've ate cold bread, I've worn old clothes
To save my money I do suppose;
But it will not stay, I can't tell why,
But dollars and cents, they just pass me by,
And I'll be dogged if I can see
How my money gets away from me.
I've worked quite hard to get a start,
But me and my money, we always part.
I've owned ten million, I do declare,
But its almost gone, and I don't know where,
For I'll be dogged if I can see
How my money gets away from me.

CALL BY NUMBER ONLY.

Mr. Henry N. Miller, General Manager of the Columbia Telephone Company, informs us that hereafter, any one wishing to use the exchange, must call by number only. There are over one hundred boxes in town, and confusion is created by calling for names. The News is printing a new Directory for this Company, which will be ready for distribution in a few days.

Coasting was greatly enjoyed last week by the young people of Columbia. The street from the Lindsay-Wilson leading to the pike was the scene of much sport; also the Pea Ridge hill on the Burkesville pike. Numerous small accidents occurred, but nothing of a serious nature to mar the sport.

Capt. W. W. Bradshaw and Mr. John W. Flowers, Cashier of the Bank of Columbia, have been elected as members of the Directorate of the M. & F. High School. In our judgment better selections could not have been made.

Many rabbits were slain last week.

OPENED A CHANNEL FOR COMMERCE.

A Comprehensive and Gratifying
Review of a City's Progress in Three Years.

In a recent address at Charleston, S. C., where the population has increased 14,000 since 1900, Mayor Rhett presented the following comprehensive and gratifying review of the city's progress in three years. He said:

"Three years ago we had a narrow channel to the sea, about 29 feet in depth; today we have a broad channel of 31 feet. Three years ago we were trying in vain to get a war vessel of any size into our harbor; last year we had a battleship wintering here, and the finest and newest of our navy's cruisers steamed out of the port at dead low water. Three years ago we had a water-front strewn with wrecked pier-heads and guarded by empty store-houses and sheds; today we have restored wharves and docks, and warehouses filled with merchandise and life. Three years ago 640 domestic vessels arrived in this port; this year there were 839, or 33 cent more. Three years ago 92 foreign vessels entered port; this year there were 111, or 20 per cent more. Three years ago a Secretary of the Navy was endeavoring to destroy our navy-yard; today the entire department is straining every nerve to make it one of the finest in all the land. Three years ago we had a drainage experiment that promised success; today we have a rich and healthy environment, produced by drainage, that has already given rich return and habitation to many, and we have a drainage campaign in progress that is going to make this whole coast a garden spot and establish an everlasting foundation for growth and prosperity to this city. Three years ago we had a dearth of enterprises and a plethora of labor; today we have enterprise everywhere and labor cannot be found for it. Three years ago immigration was a dream; now it is an established fact, and the first immigrant ship to the South Atlantic coast—the now famous Wittekind—has come and gone, to come again. Three years ago the croakers numbered 30 per cent; now they hardly number 2 per cent. Three years ago every traveling man who came into Charleston was a knocker; today the large majority of them are enthusiastic boosters. Three years ago we had many empty stores and empty dwellings; today it is hard to find one unoccupied, although hundreds have been built since."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

By the Kentucky Educational Association at Bowling Green, June 1906.

The following resolution was adopted at the K. E. A. held at Bowling Green in June, 1906:

"Since the teachers of Kentucky are but poorly prepared for the Theory and Practice examination, and are giving but little attention to the Reading Circle work, Be it resolved that the State Superintendent of Public Instruction be earnestly requested to make the Professional Course of the Teachers' Reading Circle the basis for each succeeding year's Theory and Practice examination questions."

Superintendent Fuqua has instructed the board that this will be complied with in the future. This is surely of interest to teachers.

In order then to be prepared for the examination in Theory and Practice it is necessary to become familiar with the Professional Course of the Teachers' Reading Circle. This course embraces the following books, which can be procured from C. E. Dudley, Pennsylvania, Ky., at prices quoted.

THOROUGHBREDS

To Be Placed Over the State by the Kentucky Breeding Bureau.

The organization of the Kentucky Breeding Bureau is by horsemen generally to be the most important step ever taken for the improvement of the general class of horses in this state. This Bureau is a permanent committee established by the Kentucky Branch of the American Breeders' Protective Association, the national organization of the breeders of the thoroughbred horses. It has the official sanction of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and is composed of men selected for their eminent fitness for the work and their intimate acquaintance with the breeding business. The personnel of the Bureau is as follows:

Col. E. F. Clay, of Bourbon county, Chairman; Jouett Shouse, editor of The Ky. Farmer and Breeder, of Lexington, Secretary; Geo. H. Whitney, of Lexington, Treasurer; and J. M. Camden, Jr., of Woodford county, and O. H. Chenault, of Fayette county.

The plan of the Ky. Breeding Bureau is to place thoroughbred stallions throughout the state where they will be accessible to the farmers of all counties. It is a well established fact that an infusion of thoroughbred blood improves any other breed of horses. The Bureau will send out only stallions of the finest type obtainable. These will be placed in the counties where they are most needed and most desired by the people. Every applicant for one of these stallions must be endorsed by both the senator and representative of his district and must give the Bureau evidences of his competency and reliability.

The work of the Bureau is done for the sole purpose of bettering the common breed of horses over the State, and the men back of the movement derive absolutely no revenue from it. The keeper of the stallion is allowed to charge a nominal fee of $10 to recompense him for the care and maintenance of the horse. The Bureau places stallions for one year at a time.

INCORPORATED.

CHAS. S. HARRIS - - - EDITOR

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interests of the city of Columbia and the people of Adair and the adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Postoffice as second class mail matter.

WED., FEB. 13, 1907.

It is with no ill will toward the committee and certainly not toward any aspirant that we make the following statement concerning the recent action of the Democratic committee in calling a primary, to determine who shall make the race for Railroad Commissioner in this district next November, but, if possible, to throw light on the trend of action headed toward disorganization and disintegration as we see it. There has never been a time when we have stood for or endorsed a primary, not because the voice of the people should not be expressed or heeded in the making of our ticket, but because of its placing position and office on the market and beyond the reach of men of moderate means, and the further fact that it divides and weakens our party and tends to entrench and perpetuate those who have a pull and the cash. It shuts the door of hope in the face of worthy and competent men who would aspire to position of honor and trust. It fails to give a fair and honest verdict because money is used to secure results at the polls. It rarely ever fails to work up bitterness in the rank and file of the party and reduces our fighting ability and enthusiasm against the common enemy. In fact and in truth there is no necessity for a primary from a party standpoint and the public good is not, in the least, advanced. It is purely and simply a modern method of hoodwinking the voters to advance the interests of a few politicians who can see their way into office by such a course. It fails to recognize ability and fitness unless backed by a small fortune. In this district are men eminently qualified to fill the position of Railroad Commissioner with credit to their party and justice to all interests, but are barred from entering the race, in their own party, on account of the fee required to pay the expenses of the primary. It will require $6000 to conduct the primary and the call means that the two candidates announced must foot up $3000 each to get a nomination for a $3000 position. We understand that one candidate was for primary while the other sought a convention or some other open and inexpensive method. Be that as it may; let any individual go down rather than cripple and destroy our party is the position we take. Up with the man and not the money. Speak in the open and not behind closed doors. Resurrect Democratic methods and put aside political chicanery, give every man a chance in a free country and a Democratic organization. The recent State primary lost us three Congressmen; it brought division that may yet be costly and yet in the face of these bitter campaigns and evidences of decay we keep up the same methods and trundle to the demands of a few politicians who seek a clear track regardless of the welfare of our party. If the committee can't see the fatal consequences of placing an embargo on intelligent, worthy, but not wealthy aspirants, then we are losing prestige. It is the duty of committees to act for the good of their party, and not for any certain friend or member of it, and if party action can only encourage the man with a large deposit in bank, it will only be a question of time when it will be defeated, and in justice to the public good ought to be. We believe in an open field, a fair chance, an inexpensive expression of Democrats in selecting our nominees. This can be secured by a delegated convention giving every aspirant his full strength. It would be better to bury the primary and have a little wire pulling in convention, rather than keep adding fuel to the flame that has already been kindled. In justice to all concerned, and with no axe to grind, but aiming only at good party service, we can't see any good to come under present methods.

Throughout the entire country the people are up against the sale and use of whiskey and we are glad to see such a great awakening and especially in Kentucky. The fight against legalizing its sale is on in earnest and is backed, in every instance, by those who see its horrors and who wish to make our citizenship ideal. Middlesboro is the only town in the eleventh district that failed to vote it out and there are doubts as to whether the wets won by fair means in that place. The majority was a bare one and it is charged that the saloon people secured illegal votes. In every instance where a fight has been made the only pleas to justify the saloons are that liquor will be bootlegged and give more trouble than saloons, and the saloons pay a large part of the town tax. In every fight yet to be made the same pleas will be entered. In a town or community where its sale is prohibited the people depend on other resources for revenue and know but little about drunken brawls and disorder, but where it is sold the revenue derived from the saloons is consumed in maintaining a police force, in prosecuting the unfortunate and contributing to destitution. There is not a single plea to sustain the sale of intoxicating drinks. Its sale is a business and one that brings harm rather than good. It lowers the grade of citizenship, destroys homes, wrecks our brightest young men as truly as it destroys the mediocre; it is the greatest curse that confronts any community and yet there are those who may listen to the men who are profiting by its sale. No town, no county, ought to license a business that is destroying its manhood, wrecking homes and bringing misery, simply because a few men want to make money out of its sale. Lebanon is our nearest town that legalizes its sale but in March a vote will be taken to ascertain whether or not it will continue to do so. There is one thing favorable to those against the saloon business in Lebanon, and that is that only $200 tax is required and while they have nine saloons the revenue loss would not be but $1800, a sum too small to consider in the affairs of such a progressive city. We trust that the good work will proceed until Kentucky will rank as high in moral standing as it has heretofore stood in the manufacture and sale of whiskey.

Campbellsville is surely awakening to her many opportunities and taking on new life and energy which will demonstrate to other towns the worth of united and persistent effort. First as we are informed, the main spring was touched and put in motion through the action of their town council, composed of progressive young men. The town elected a council as above indicated and immediately after its organization the decree to build side walks was issued. Like all other places the council received much criticism, but unlike many other boards, it kept the good work moving until every part of the town had been lifted from mud and the voice of the grumbler ceased or changed to praise.

The Council won its first battle, it started the machinery that will result in making Campbellsville one of the most progressive towns in the State. The next step was won, an electric light plant, and on they go. A short time ago a Commercial Club was organized and through it a woolen mill and pants factory with a capital of $20,000 has been secured. Negotiations are on for other industries and the Club is now investigating. The new school building under the management of the Russell Creek Association, is about finished and the building of two dormitories will be pushed to completion at an early date. This is one of the steps that means much for Campbellsville. Next summer the ice plant, and doubtless water works, will be dispensing blessings and profits.

Several business houses are assured and a ten thousand dollar hotel is to be erected. Where did it start, who started it? Well, we are told that it's origin was in the town council that was wise enough to see the step and game enough to hush to the line disregarding what may be properly called "mossbacks." We are glad to see such progress and trust that it will grow in volume.

Columbians, fellow townsmen, we have started well in Columbia but we must keep the faith. Her council ought to tear up nearly every old walk in the town and force the building of good ones. No use to try to get the consent of "mossbacks," make no exceptions nor play favorites, hush to the line and hush all the time. The Commercial should be a great power for and will be if we are in earnest. The time to be strong in the town is when others are weak; time to do is when others are sleeping, before they do and as they give up. Keep doing, do all the time. Splendid opportunities exist here for local capital which would yield a good interest and aid in a rapid growth of the town.

MELL.

Stephen Blaydes, one of our oldest citizens, died suddenly last Monday night of heart trouble. He went to bed apparently well as ever, the next morning was found in bed cold in death.

Mrs. G. A. Keltner, who has been in bad health for the past few months, has recently improved in health.

Uncle James Morrison, our oldest citizen, had an attack of heart trouble recently and came very near dying. He is considered better at this writing. Uncle Jimmie says he is 87 years old. He made a good crop of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats and hay the previous season with but very little hired help. He is certainly a resolute old man.

JOPPA.

We are enjoying some nice winter weather at this writing.

Quite a number have had their hams and shoulders to sour, but Joppa's meat is keeping alright if salt is scarce.

Miss Myrtie Squires, who has been visiting relatives here the past week, returned home Friday.

Mrs. Lizza Murrell and family have been quite sick with lagrippe the past week.

R. O. Cabell started to Thurlow Green county to commence a singing school Monday night and got snowed under. He returned Monday and has been enjoying making fires at home this week.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego County, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Deitz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker by T. E. Paul's Drug store. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Hamon.

Mr. M. L. Grant was here last week buying hogs.

Mr. June Spoon, who has been confined to his bed with pneumonia fever is better.

Mr. Bud Green purchased a fine saddle horse from Columbus Holt last week, price unknown.

The young folks had an old time foot shake at Mr. Sam Harvey's one night last week.

Mr. Thomas Pulliam bought of Mr. J. M. Turner 242 white oak tree paying him $900 in gold.

Mr. Finis Harvey and family is visiting the family of J. M. Turner this week.

The party given at Lee Burbridge's last Wednesday night was largely attended.

Mr. Milton Derossett, of Clinton county, is visiting the family of W. H. Hamon.

The singing at Charlie Collins conducted by Prof. Lister Antle last Sunday night was well attended. Prof. Antle is a splendid singer. Lovers of music should not fail to hear him.

Mr. H. B. McClister bought the well known hounds, Reg and Regular, paying $15.

There will be a singing at Union church better known as "Dogtown" next Wednesday night conducted by Dave Lawhorn. Every body come and bring Windows of Heaven.

BESSEMER, ALABAMA.

If you will allow me space in your paper, I will write a few lines to a newspaper—the second in my life.

I feel like I am at home once a week, back in old Adair, when I get a copy of the News. I like to see the Cane Valley letter, and would say to the correspondent from that point, keep your eyes open so that former citizens of that good burg, who are in different States, may keep posted.

I will attempt to give a short sketch of Bessemer. We have 20,000 inhabitants; a first-class blast furnace; one steel mill; four railroads; two street car lines, one running from Birmingham to Bessemer, 12 miles, surrounded by coal and iron mines; four pipe shops and foundries, working 5,000 men. This year a Government building will be erected here at a cost of $100,000, an opera house to cost $30,000 and a lot of other building.

We have had plenty of rain and the Winter has been extremely warm.

Am sorry to hear of the burning of Green River Bridge, but hope another will be constructed at an early date. Possibly, I may journey to my old home soon, and would like another means of crossing other than the method employed by Mr. Wilson's turkeys.

I read many complaints of bad roads in Adair. I hope soon to hear of a great improvement in their condition. Lay to it, boys, and you will succeed after awhile.

ATHERTONVILLE, KY.

Editor News:

I reached this place on the 2nd inst about 9:30 o'clock a. m., came out from New Haven, a distance of two miles by buggy. Athertonville is a nice little distillery town, with some very picturesque scenery surrounding it.

If a kodak could be had I would take some beautiful likenesses in the sphere of nature as it appears here at this time. I imagine that this is a very pretty place during the summer, but snow and crisp air have been our portion from the weather man during the past week. Mr. T. C. Davidson was here up until the 5th when he was transferred to New Hepe, his house having closed out on that date. Tom Charley seems perfectly at home in the service, his business qualifications makes him a valuable addition to the service.

Mr. Byron Montgomery, of Columbia, is also stationed at this place. Mr. Montgomery is an apt scholar in any thing he undertakes and if he continues in the service at his present rate of progress he will make one of the "old vets" some day.

Nearly all the people I have met here know Henry Kemp, and they speak of him in the highest terms, both as a business young man and as a companion and friend, and they hope that he will recover from his illness so he can return and resume his duties.

I will close this time for fear that I take up too much space in your valuable paper.

Yours very resp.
FRED McLEAN.

BROCK, TEXAS.

The farming class of Texas are in a prosperous condition, owing to the good price paid for cotton. The picking season is about over, and the farmers are breaking land for another crop.

G. W. Brashear, our Gin man, has put up $1100 worth of bales this season.

The school at Brock is progressing nicely under the management of Prof. T. W. Wilson as principal and Miss Annie Butts as assistant. The enrollment has reached 100.

Rev. W. C. Brashear, husband of your correspondent, fell from a horse two weeks since and sustained a fracture of the hip. His suffering was intense for a few days, but at present seems to be rapidly improving.

Nothing will relieve indigestion that is not a thorough digestant. Kodol digests what you eat and allows the stomach to rest—recuperate—grow strong again. Kodol is a solution of digestive acids and as nearly as possible approximates the digestive juices that are found in the stomach. Kodol takes the work of digestion off the digestive organs, and while performing this work itself does greatly assist the stomach to a thorough rest. In addition the ingredients of Kodol are such as to make it a corrective of the highest efficiency and by its action the stomach is restored to its normal activity and power. Kodol is manufactured in strict conformity with the National Pure Food and Drug Law. Sold by Page & Dohoney, Columbia, Ky.

PELTYTON.

Mr. Kinch Jones, who was raised in this section, but emigrated to the West thirty-four years ago, is visiting friends and relatives here. He reports that he has traveled a great deal since leaving Kentucky, has never married and now makes his home at Percy, Iowa.

Mr. Oscar Sinclair, one of our nicest young men and one of Adair's promising young teachers, is at Bowling Green, Ky., in the Western Kentucky State Normal School taking the Normal course. He expects to remain there until Spring.

Considering the inclemency of weather the Sunday School here is progressing nicely, the attendance being fairly good, with considerable interest being taken in the discussion of the lessons. Superintendent W. H. Lemmon is a faithful worker in the Sunday school cause and is always present and full of the good work.

Marvin Perryman, the youngest son of J. M. Perryman, who is attending school at the Lindy-Wilson at Columbia, was at home last Saturday and Sunday on a visit to his parents.

Mr. M. and L. W. Wolford will operate their new saw mill in a short time on the land of Thompson Sanders where they have a large quantity of lumber to cut. There is much valuable saw timber in this section yet to be cut.

There is no sickness in this section now. Your reporter does not know of a single one who is ill and under the care of a physician. This is the greatest blessing to the community at large, but a little discouraging to the physicians.

These cold Wintry days when the snow is laying several inches deep on the ground and nothing in the way of manual labor is done, if every family had a good sized library of choice books, and form the reading habit, it is impossible to estimate the valuable information that might be acquired by the masses of the people generally. Time wasted could be spent in intellectual and moral cultivation. One who has formed the habit of reading the choicest literature of all the ages, and reading is largely a habit which may be easily acquired by any intelligent person, very seldom has occasion to get lonesome. Many men and women have acquired a fairly good liberal education by applying all leisure time in reading the best of books and have found them to be the most pleasant and valuable of companions, and books and periodicals are so cheap that almost every family could afford to have a well selected library of choice books. It would well pay parents to buy good books for their children and put them to reading. It might be the means of laying the foundation for good and removing many causes for evil. The most of the greatest statesmen, ministers, physicians, lawyers and others who have acquired fame on account of great learning have been diligent readers, and so it will be, to a certain extent, in all the future.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years beyond the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period, that determines its duration, seems to be between the ages of 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that vitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by T. E. Pauli, Druggist. 50c.

CROCUS.

Mr. Ed Hays left for Cincinnati, Wednesday, where he will remain for a short time before returning to Springfield, Ill., where he has been for the past two years.

Mr. Bob Miller is recovering from a severe spell of sickness.

The singing at Mr. E. Grant's Sunday night was largely attended and enjoyed by all present.

The Sunday School at Mt. Zion is progressing very nicely.

There will be a singing at Mt. Zion the 4th Sunday in this month conducted by Nath Antle.

Mr. Leslie Loy and wife returned from Clarksdale, Mo., last week.

Dr. Miller and son, visited his mother, Mrs. A. Miller Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Mathew Aaron visited her brother, W. O. Hayes, Wednesday.

Rev. G. R. Abrell preached a very interesting sermon at Mt. Zion last Sunday.

Mr. Luther Conover and wife visited Mr. A. A. Miller Sunday.

FARM FOR SALE.

I will sell my farm five miles East of Columbia, on the Columbia and Liberty road, consisting of 70 acres, one-third in timber. For further particulars apply to D. M. Moore, Eunice, Ky. 12-4t

DIRIGO.

The present little snow, which is the largest in this section we have had this winter, is just a little tough on those who had neglected to prepare for this kind of weather and were thus out of wood.

Mrs. Melvin Petty has been quite sick for the past few days but is some better at this writing.

J. W. McKinney, of St. Louis, Mo., has been visiting relatives in this section for several days.

Dr. J. L. Stapp is in very delicate health. He has been a magnetic healer for the past three or four years and thinks that through the act of ridding others of their maladies he has himself become afflicted, and yet he denounces "Materia Medica" as a fraud.

G. G. Campbell accompanied his little son, Ova, visited his daughter, Mrs. Eldridge Stotts, at Gradyville, last Thursday.

Messrs. R. G. Breeding and James England have rented the saw mill of J. L. Stapp and son and will finish the yard at the present site on Harrod's Fork.

J. J. England and wife are visiting the latter's parent's in Metcalfe this week.

Haskins Stapp and Venus Royse have formed a partnership and have contracted to log up the timber which Stuts & Co., recently purchased near Gradyville.

Evan Strange and Barnner Harvey spent last Saturday and Sunday at Fairplay.

As it was a little cooler than usual last Tuesday morning, Mr. Evan Strange, who carries the mail from here to Breeding, thought it would be a little more pleasant on foot than on horseback, and so accordingly he shouldered the mail bags and put out. He reached Breeding on time, but hired a horse for the return trip and vows that rain or shine, heat or snow, he will walk no more.

KNIFLEY.

Wheat and young grasses made rapid progress during the warm weather in January.

W. R. Watson had a good work horse to die a few days ago with botts.

Mr. Geo. G. Watson happened to a very painful accident last Sunday. While out of his buggy to close a gate, his horse started on the run and in an effort to get hold of the reins he came in contact with the vehicle which threw him to the ground bruising his head and face severely.

Born to the wife of Sam White, January—twins, weight 9 pounds each. Mother and babies doing well.

The largest singing on record is being conducted at Hovious' school house of 30 days and nights by Prof. Grimsey, he having already taught two of 10 days each at the same place.

We would say to Columbia and Greensburg, wake up to your interests in regard to the pike connecting both places. Our town could by building 5 miles of pike be connected with Mannsville, Campbellsville and Elkhorn, but our people don't seem to have the right spirit to look to their own interests. Wake up, Knifley don't sleep the sleep of Rip Van Winkle.

Welby Jones is keeping house on W. E. Bryant's place and will work with Ed this season.

One of Nathan Allison's little girls was severely scalded a few days ago by an overturned coffee pot.

Mr. A. Hoveious has placed a stock of groceries in the old Stults Store house. Mr. Hoveious is a nice gentleman and should command a good patronage.

Messrs. Steve Goode, John Wolford and Geo. Walker furnished the L. W. T. S. several students this winter.

Thos. McDermot has moved to his new residence on W. J. Ingram's place.

Mr. Curby Simpson is now carrying the mail from here to Campbellsville.

There will be a sale at the residence of Mr. B. F. Tupman one mile west of Neatsville, on Thursday Feb. 4th, 1907, consisting of all of his personal property. Mr. Tupman sold his farm to a Mr. Knifley, consideration $4,900. This is one of the best farms on Green river.

Use a little Kodol after your meals and it will be found to afford a prompt and efficient relief. Kodol nearly approximates the digestive juices. It digests what you eat. It is sold on a guaranteed relief plan. Sold here by Page & Dohoney.

YOSEMITE.

Rev. W. G. Tilford is quite sick at his home at Middleburg.

The late highwater washed out some of the foundation of J. K. Coffey's mill at Middlesburg, and the building is likely to topple over at any time.

Rev. Peyton, a sanctified Campbellite, preached two sermons on the subject of Sanctification at Oak Grove school house last week.

A protracted meeting at the Methodist church at Middleburg has been in progress for a week or more. Rev. Pickett, of Wilmore, is doing the preaching.

Attorney Preston Fogle, of Indian Ter., is at the bed side of his father, Mr. McDowell Fogle. Mack Fogle went to Georgetown Monday to enter school.

At a negro dance at the home of one Frank Wilhoit, on the Trace Fork pike, just outside town, one night last week, a row occurred between Walter Wilkinson, and one Cloyd, when latter drew a pistol and fired at Wilkinson. The shot went wide of its mark and struck one Bill Taylor in the forehead, glancing off, merely burning the skin.

Miss Mattie Estes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Estes, who live on the Liberty pike one mile below town is about the busiest little woman in this section. She raises chickens, turkeys, hogs and cattle. Sells eggs, butter, etc., and has quite a nice little bank account. We do not know that Miss Mattie is on the matrimonial market, but the fellow that is so fortunate as to win her will have a wife indeed and in truth.

WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Week's Happenings—News Important or Otherwise as Reported By Our Corps of Correspondents.

GRADYVILLE.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hill was on the sick list a day or so of last week.

H. A. Walker, of Columbia, was here Thursday, on his return from Edmonton.

Tim Cravens, of Columbia, called here Thursday on his return from Edmonton.

J. A. Diddle was transacting business in Columbia last Friday.

Tyler Scott, of Edmonton, was with our stock men a few days of last week.

Rev. W. B. Cave filled the pulpit last Sunday with a very interesting discourse.

Mr. King Ridgers, of Keltner, was shaking hands with his many friends in our town last Friday.

Rev. J. S. Sexton has been confined to his room for several days with a complication of diseases.

Mr. Rufus Pulliam, one of Nell's prosperous farmers, is confined to his room with throat trouble.

Clifton Coleman, one of Edmonton's business men, was on our streets a day or so of last week.

A little child of Mr. and Mrs. A. McMahan has been quite sick for the past week or two.

Mr. Jo Reid, of Columbia, was with our business men Friday.

Uncle Charlie Coomer, who is residing with his son-in-law, James A. Rutherford, reports that his health is better than it has been in twenty years.

We are glad to note that Mrs. G. Y. Wilson and Mrs. C. Wilmore, who have been on the sick list for the past week are improving at this time.

Rev. Whitfield, of Columbia, delivered a very interesting discourse at Union last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Walkup spent a few days of last week visiting relatives in Russell and Adair county.

Judge H. C. Baker on his return from Edmonton, stopped at the Wilmore house for dinner last Friday.

Several of our citizens want to know when the new bridge that the money was subscribed for will span Big Creek just below this town.

Mr. C. H. Murrell, the popular salesman for the Adair County News, passed through here a few days ago en route for Edmonton.

Our Methodist people will give a missionary rally in the near future.

Dr. S. A. Taylor was called to see Mrs. Willie Hamilton one day last week, who is confined to her room with double pneumonia fever.

Mr. Thomas Waggener, of Portland, was in our midst last Friday, and reported everything moving along nicely in his section.

Rev. W. H. C. Sandidge passed through here last Friday on his return from Red Boiling Springs, Tenn., where he has been engaged in revival work for three weeks.

This new game, Flinch, is very popular in our town. Both old and young participate, and the longer it is played, the more interesting it becomes.

Uncle George Flowers wants to know what makes snow white? Please answer through the News.

The recent cold spell stopped business in our town for a day or so to some extent.

Mr. Will Lyons, the popular groceryman of Campbellsville was here Wednesday soliciting orders.

Mr. Charles Sexton, the well-known shoemaker, of this place, who moved to Scottsville several months ago to continue his profession, has to some extent lost his health, and will in the near future, move back to this town.

We are certainly sorry to hear of Mr. Sexton's health, giving down, but we would be truly glad to have him and family come back as we need them here. Mr. Sexton is without a doubt one of the best shoemakers we have ever had in our town, and we can give him plenty work.

Mr. Jake Bailey, the well-known drug man of Horse Cave, who made this territory for a number of years for a Louisville firm, and who is now on the road for a drug house of Nashville, Tenn., called in to see us on his way from the Cumberland river section last Wednesday. Jake looks as natural as an old shoe, and we certainly were glad to shake o's hand and to know that he was enjoying a good trade. It goes without saying that he understands his profession and will have a good trade wherever he goes. Call again, Jake.

The largest snow for the past twenty years, made its appearance in our town last Sunday night and Monday. It was about 8 inches deep, and as usual found some of us out of wood and something to eat, but we have all managed to pull through, and feel sure that next July we will never think of snow and the wood question. The rabbit was the greatest sufferer, as there has been about 250 killed in this immediate section.

CANE VALLEY.

A nine inch snow on the ground changes the appearance of things, and makes sleigh riding the latest.

Eld. Z. T. Williams filled his regular appointment at the Christian Church, the first Saturday night and Sunday.

Coy E. Dudgeon made a business trip to Plum Point one day last week.

Mr. J. S. Stansbury made a business trip to Lebanon Junction and other points the latter part of the week.

So far as we are able to ascertain, farmers are preparing for a good acreage of tobacco in this section. A good many plantbeds have already been burned.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Beard are quite sick at their home at Kellyville, with pneumonia fever.

C. A. Wilson was in C-ville the latter part of the week attending the burial of his grandson, Ewing McElroy.

The farmers who had begun their Spring plowing are found hovering around the fireside these cold Wintry days.

Speaking of good roads. We will soon be able to build a pike from Cane Valley to Greensburg and Columbia road, a distance of 2 miles west of our town. A great deal of stock has already been subscribed. This road is in need of improvement, and we would be glad to hear from those in and about Cane Valley who are interested, yet have said nothing.

We are truly glad to know that Green river will be spanned at an early day with a new bridge, for our town and community with others, suffer no little inconvenience since the old one burned.

ROWE'S X ROADS.

Your scribe has been on the sick list for the past two months, but is some better.

The general mercantile firm, Selby & Montgomery, at this place, have dissolved partnership, the style now being Selby & Wolford.

Jack Hadley has returned to Phil, Casey county.

Eld. Barger bought one mare from Phil Wolford.

Mr. James Helm, who lived on Willis Creek, died last week. Mr. Helm had been in the raft business for twenty-five years. He was a member of the M. E. Church, and was an honorable, upright citizen.

Rev. Solomon Nichols visited Rev. Thomas Hadley and family last week. Rev. Nichols is 82 years of age, and has been in the ministry for more than 60 years.

Messrs. James Suddarth and Ernest Cundiff are hustling for the bridge at Burk's ford. It is badly needed now.

Lagrippe is raging in this neighborhood —most every family suffering with it.

The young people of this neighborhood gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Bradley last Saturday evening and had a merry time. Music and games were enjoyed and all regretted the hour for departure.

As Miss Mattie Squires was returning from Columbia about two weeks ago, where she had been shopping, her horse became unmanageable as she was crossing Russell Creek at Slick Rock ford, and she lost a silver dollar, a bottle of cake flavoring and a mirror. When Miss Squires reached home she missed the articles and thought it no use to search for them. However just two weeks later as she was crossing at the same ford she discovered the missing articles in the middle of the creek.

Miss Mattie Smith was visiting in Columbia last week.

Two of Finis Cundiff's children were very sick last week.

Mr. John R. Cundiff has been confined to his room the past week with lagrippe.

Mrs. Mary J. Bowline and a Mr. DeHart, of Russell Springs, were married last Sunday.

J. H. Smith, of Font Hill, showed us a letter wherein the Secretary of the Ky. Breeder's Association promises to send him a thoroughbred horse in a few days. This is owing to the fact that he and D. C. Hopper, our representative, took interest enough to make a trip to Shelbyville to see after the horse a few days ago.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Coffey's Chapel that is ahead of anything so far reported. There have been 48 professions so far, and yet there is little or no preaching, as there is so much excitement and noise the preacher does not often attempt to preach. The people are so worked up as to not leave the house at all day or night. The doctrine is sanctification, but it does look foolish to a quiet man up a tree.
